ACCRINGTON STANLEY COMMUNITY TRUST

REGISTERED CHARITY NO. 113957

»»» ABOUT US

Accrington Stanley Community Trust is the award-winning, official charity (number 1139575) of Accrington Stanley Football Club.

Accrington Stanley Community Trust was originally established under the banner of Football in the Community in 2007, with the aim to bring the professional club and their community closer together. After becoming a registered charity and re-forming as a Community Trust in 2010, the organisation has seen an accelerated rise and growth.

Accrington Stanley Community Trust has expanded at a phenomenal rate and work in 4 key themed areas: Sports Participation, Education, Health & Wellbeing and Community Engagement.

Football and in particular, Accrington Stanley Football Club has the ability to engage people, improve community cohesion and raise the hopes and aspirations of the people of Hyndburn. As a Club we are committed to ensuring that we respond to local needs whilst working strategically in line with regional and national agendas. We all recognise that sport can play a prominent role in addressing major issues such as obesity, anti-social behaviour, health, employment and attainment. Accrington Stanley Community Trust engages with over 16,000 people every year across 30 different projects.

Under the reasonable direction of the Head of Education, the successful candidate will carry out the professional duties of a Further Education Sports Tutor and lead on our brand new post 16 Female Football Academy, with the hours split 50/50 across the 2 roles. Accrington Stanley Community Trust place an emphasis on developing the individual both academically and as a person, and would expect the post-holder to contribute towards this ethos.

Sports Tutor:

The successful candidate will provide quality teaching across our education provision, meeting pre-set objectives and learning outcomes which are stipulated in the funding requirements. Facilitating and encouraging a learning experience which provides students with the opportunity to achieve their individual potential is important to the team, and all staff are responsible for contributing to raising standards and aspirations of students. The role is estimated to include around 12 hours of teaching.

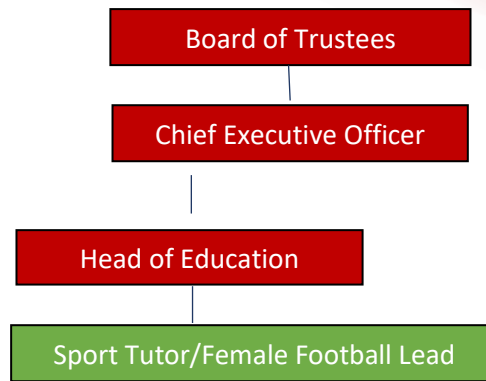

Staff within our Education department are required to implement and deliver an appropriately broad, balanced, relevant and differentiated curriculum for students which will encourage a learning experience that provides students with the opportunity to achieve their individual potential.

Female Football Lead:

Practical Delivery - Leading, organising and delivering on all practical aspects of the Football Education Programme. A key area of the role will be to create and implement a successful, engaging training and games programme for all of our students, as well as being the lead coach for a squad on match days. Duties will also include keeping up to date with the relevant administration duties.

Recruitment- recruitment of students onto the programme is an essential element of the post. The post holder will create and implement an effective recruitment strategy to engage the target audience using a variety of methods. There is also an expectation for the post holder to deliver a range of further school and community activities to assist with recruitment. The role will include regular liaison with schools and grassroots football clubs across Hyndburn, Ribble Valley and Rossendale as well as the Youth Academy Department within Accrington Stanley Football Club. This role also requires the holder to work under the jurisdiction of the Head of Education and Chief Executive.
